Mr. Leong Horn Shiang:

Freddie is one of the early pioneers of the Hospitality industry in Singapore. During his illustrious career in the industry, he had held many executive positions in a wide range of establishments. Below are some highlights:

- In 1971, he was one of the only 2 Wine Butlers of the Singapore Hilton. The first of such positions in Singapore at the time.

- From 1976 to 1978, he was the Resident Manager of the Manila Royal Hotel, Philippines. This was the pioneering effort of Singaporean from the industry to be working overseas.

- From 1978 to 1982, he was the Executive Assistant Manager of the Raffles Hotel Singapore. This old world charm hotel was the icon of the industry at the time and still is today.

- In 1980, he was awarded the first Singapore Hotel & Restaurant Association Fellowship-Executive Development Programme to attend the University of Hawaii, Travel Industry Executive Course.

- From 1986 to 1989, he was the General Manager of the RELC International Hotel. This had provided him with an insight on the working of a government body.

- Moving into the educational field, he was responsible for setting up the UK’s NVQ programme while he was the director of the Hospitality Division of Rex Commercial School. This was done in conjunction with Thames Valley University and the Hospitality Awarding body of UK. This British qualification was very well received from 1998 to 2002 in Singapore.

- In recognition of his contributions towards community work, he was awarded the Service to Education Award by the Ministry of Education (Silver Medal) on National Day 9th August 2000.

- He came out of retirement in July 2007 and decided to join the education field so as to share his passion and experience of the hospitality industry with students.

Mr Leong is approved by CPE to teach all modules of our Tourism and Hospitality programmes at both Diploma and Advanced Diploma level and students would enjoy his class and gain much knowledge from him.
